Prayer for Pentecost

Unless the eye catch fire
The God will not be seen.
Unless the ear catch fire
The God will not be heard.
Unless the tongue catch fire
The God will not be named.
Unless the heart catch fire
The God will not be loved.
Unless the mind catch fire
The God will not be known.

William Blake (1757 – 1827), an extract from 'Pentecost'

June Events

Dear Friends,

An article headline 'jumped' out at me last week – "Have confidence to chat about faith".

In the article the author wrote of a conversation he had overheard recently that had taken place on public transport. The conversation was between two women and the response to the question "why are you a Christian?" was: "Ah, I cannot possibly answer a question like that. You'd have to ask the Vicar". Pressed by her companion, the woman continued: "I like our church service because I feel completely at peace". "Ah, peace! You should come to my Pilates class. It's the most peaceful point of my week." The conversation ended with the Christian lady writing the date of the next class in her diary.

It is funny that what we feel in our hearts and show in our being day by day, we find hard to express in words or perhaps feel a bit uncomfortable speaking about it. Whereas almost without exception most non believers can rattle off at least three reasons why people should not have a religious belief! If we are able to find a way to explain our faith in honest simple terms then we might be able to have that chat with a friend at a Pilates class and they might one day want to continue the conversation in a pew.

With love and prayers, Christine

We have a playwright in our midst!

John (Hughes) recently responded to a challenge issued from the National Theatre of Scotland to produce five minute pieces of theatre to help celebrate the NTS's first five years. People from all over the world, including John, rose to the challenge from 5pm on Tuesday 21st June until 5pm on Wednesday 22nd June these Five Minute Theatre performances will be broadcast online to the world. John's piece entitled 'Unsettling Statements' will be broadcast from Dundee Rep at 8.30 pm on the Tuesday evening and is open to members of the public. The broadcast can also be accessed at the same time online at: <http://www.nationaltheatrescotland.com>.
Congratulations John

Wed 8 June 7.30pm CATT Interfaith talk by Rev Dom Ind in Dickson Hall
Refreshments will be available from 7.00pm
Sun 12 June 6.30pm CATT Songs of Praise in King Street United Free Church

Saturday 18 June Strawberry Fayre 2.00pm - 4.00pm in Church Garden
Hopefully the weather will be kind and we can hold this event outside.
In addition to our usual stalls we hope to have 'face painting' for the children and unobtrusive live music.
Janette, Beatrice and Rose would be delighted if you could help with:
Donations for stalls - books, bric a brac, raffle prizes, scones, strawberries, cream.
Volunteering to help set up/tidy up/serve coffee and tea/look after a stall.
Bring your friends.
Offer suggestions on how to make the afternoon a success.
Please contact one of them if you can help.
